

BANGLADESH

RESPONDED TO SURVEY	REQUESTED MODEL LEGISLATION	TOC & PROTOCOLS			CRIMINALISATION		NOTABLE SUCCESS	SUGGESTED FURTHER ACTION	KEY PARTNERSHIPS
		TO C	PS	PT	PS	PT
Y					Not criminalised Smugglers are charged for cheating, committing forgery or production of fraudulent documents or breach of passport or immigration rules.	Criminalised for women and children Women and Child repression Prevention Act 2000 Trafficking in women When a person imports or exports or sells, let to hire or otherwise disposes of, or buys, hires or otherwise obtains possession of any women of any age with intention that such women be employed or used for the purpose of prostitution or illicit intercourse with any person or for any unlawful or immoral	Month long road march campaign (organised by the Government and international donors including Australia) throughout Bangladesh to highlight trafficking in persons and other crimes against women (included citizens, government officials and parliamentarians) US State Department June 2003 Trafficking in Persons Report hailed activity as best international practice.	Mutual cooperation Exchange of information on crime and criminals (harmonise law enforcement agencies) Proper training and supply of necessary logistics equipment Improve access to forensic document expertise and document intelligence Form a core group of document examination experts with specialisation in identifying various forms of document fraud who could provide latest information on trends regarding fraudulent documents,	Key partnerships <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Signatory to the SAARC Convention to Prevent Trafficking of Women and Children for Prostitution – working within SAARC to address people smuggling issues - IOM (regional office in Dhaka) Working with IOM to draft a national trafficking policy - Local NGOs - USAID - NORAD - AusAID

					purpose. Trafficking in children When someone imports or exports or sells, or let to hire or otherwise disposes of or buys, hire or otherwise obtains possession of any children of age not more than 14. Slavery is also a criminal offence. Trafficking in persons other than women and children is not a criminal offence. The traffickers are charged for cheating, committing forgery or production of fraudulent documents or breach of passport or immigration rules.		prepare and distribute document intelligence alerts and provide technical advice and assistance in investigation of major cases involving fraudulent documents Increase training Awareness raising Surplus labour and poverty in developing countries Focus on the humanitarian issues of migration flows and poverty
--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--