

TOPIC A

WHAT POTENTIAL IS THERE FOR COOPERATION IN HOW WE IDENTIFY PEOPLE MOVING BETWEEN BORDERS?

ACTION	SUGGESTED DISCUSSION
Share experiences in introducing / improving national processes	Why did countries decide to introduce / implement processes? What problems were encountered? How were problems resolved? Learning - would they do anything differently?
Identify reasons why countries should cooperate?	Limitations to acting in isolation Cost effectiveness ID fraud is a trans-national issue
Identify any bilateral or multilateral cooperation already occurring	Type of cooperation Between which countries / which borders / Successes, experiences Plans for further cooperation
Identify scope for bilateral or multilateral cooperation	Sharing of information - what information (e.g. regional alert lists?, fraudulent passport data? Advance Passenger information?), possibilities and constraints, privacy issues, control of information, security issues, political issues, cultural issues Compatibility of information databases Training issues
SUMMARISE AND REPORT	Why countries should cooperate Cooperation already taking place Potential for further cooperation - what is practicable? What to do next?