

REGIONAL SUPPORT OFFICE

THE BALI PROCESS

WHO WE ARE

The Bali Process Regional Support Office (RSO) was established in 2012 to provide technical support to the Bali Process and to strengthen regional cooperation on refugee protection and international migration, including human trafficking and people smuggling. The RSO is the only cooperation mechanism of its kind in the region.

We bring together relevant:

- policy knowledge;
- technical expertise; and
- operational experience

from Bali Process members and other key stakeholders to develop practical initiatives that address people smuggling, trafficking in persons and related transnational crime.

The Bali Process on People Smuggling, Trafficking in Persons and Related Transnational Crime (Bali Process) was established in 2002 to focus on long-term strategies to address the crimes of people smuggling, trafficking in persons and other related transnational crime in Asia and the Pacific.

Chaired by Australia and Indonesia

49 Member States

OUR PURPOSE

Work to avoid duplication across the region

RSO oversight by Bali Process
Co-Chairs Indonesia and Australia

Administered by RSO Australian and Indonesian Co-Managers

12 staff and expert consultants
Secondees from Bali Process members

Based in Bangkok, Thailand

We work with our stakeholders on initiatives that improve regional ability to identify and respond to trafficking in persons, people smuggling and related issues.

The RSO develops policy tools, holds workshops and conducts training on a range of issues relevant to the Bali Process. This has included asylum procedures, screening travel documents, designing effective information campaigns, and implementing assisted voluntary return programmes.

In February 2017 the RSO launched the Regional Strategic Roadmap, an online portal that supports Member States to evaluate and improve responses to trafficking in persons.
